

CHS-Connect Network Webinar

The role of community actors in the fight against Covid-19

6th Dec 2021
14:00-15:30 pm GMT+1

Facilitator:

Moses Tetui
Health systems Researcher
University of Waterloo, Canada
Umeå University, Sweden
Makerere University School of Public Health, Uganda

Presenters:

Joseph Zulu
Associate professor-
Community Health,
University of Zambia,

“The role of community actors in the response against COVID-19: a systematic review identifying lessons learned from low- and middle-income countries.”

Manya van Ryneveld
PhD Candidate, University of the Western Cape, South Africa

“Lessons from a widespread neighbourhood-level response to Covid-19 in Cape Town, South Africa.”

Neb Zachariah
Health Promotion
Research Analyst, Region
of Waterloo, Canada

“Experiences of engaging community leaders to increase confidence in Covid-19 vaccines in the Waterloo Region”

Rakhal Gaitonde
Professor
Achutha Menon Centre for Health
Science Studies Sree Chitra Tirunal
Institute of Medical Sciences and Technology Thiruvananthapuram,
Kerala, India

“Community Action for Health - the role of systematic state action - a case study of COVID-19 in Kerala, India”.

About CHS-Connect

CHS-Connect is a network of Researchers, policy makers and practitioners from five+ institutions across the world. The purpose of this network is to enhance research capacity and competence for designing and conducting “embedded” health policy and systems research to build Inclusive, Socially Accountable, Responsive and Resilient Community Health Systems (CHS). Join our webinar to learn more about the network and how you can be involved. Quick readings about the network.

1. Strengthening Research and Practice in Community Health Systems: A Research Agenda and Manifesto
2. The Multiple Lenses on the Community Health System: Implications for Policy, Practice and Research

Register Here!